

CHAPEL HART

Chapel Hart is a trio of cousins. Sisters Danica and Devynn Hart, along with first cousin Trea Swindle grew up in a small community called Hart's Chapel, Mississippi. The group started out as a duo while playing in New Orleans. They took a couple years to try and acclimate to the New Orleans music scene, but they knew that wasn't what was in their heart to do. When Devynn joined Trea and Danica, the three decided to go back to what they really loved, which was country music.

After the success of their single, "Jesus & Alcohol," Chapel Hart released "I Will Follow" and "You Can Have Him Jolene." They have been named one of CMT's Next Women Of Country and are currently working on their second album to be released in early 2022.

Currently, Chapel Hart is taking audiences by storm in venues all over the country on their Follow Your Hart Tour. Those fortunate enough to get to see them live will be treated to an evening of heart and personality where they feel like they are sitting at home in their living room, hanging out with their best friends and listening to some great country music. "As expressed by the girls of Chapel Hart, "Our music is a combination of influences from each of our backgrounds, delivered from our hearts."

"Thanks again to the lovely Chapel Hart ladies for the opportunity to perform alongside them in the video of the truly great song, "Jesus & Alcohol". Mercy, my...! These girls have something superb to share and show off with... Gracias!"

-Billy Gibbons, ZZ Top

"Rarely in a career does one encounter such a combination of talent, work ethic, intelligence, personality and beauty. They are destined for success and I am thrilled and honored to join Chapel Hart on their ride to the top!"

-Manager and Producer, Jeff Glizman
